Judge Vazquez to honor active duty, retired military with free weddings

Judge Roberto Vazquez, who presides over the Precinct 2, Place 1 Justice of the Peace Court, will honor active duty military service members and honorably discharged veterans by officiating their weddings free of charge the day before Veterans Day. Weddings will be performed from 9 a.m. – 4 p.m., on Monday, Nov. 10, at the Justice of the Peace Precinct 2 court at 7723 Guilbeau Road, Suite 105.

“I have utmost respect for those who have given of their lives in a call to duty,” Judge Vazquez said. “They and their families have sacrificed and displayed great courage in protecting our nation; this is a small token of my appreciation.”

Couples must obtain a marriage license from the Bexar County Clerk’s Office prior to the ceremony. Marriage license information can be found at www.bexar.org on the County Clerk’s page.

Ceremonies will be performed by appointment only; call (210) 335-4814 or email roberto.vazquez@bexar.org to make an appointment.
