GUN TOTIN' FELON GETS NINETY NINE

A Bexar County Jury sent a strong message on gun crime. The nine women, three-man jury handed Connie Robinson a ninety-nine year prison sentence for being a felon in possession of a weapon. The conviction stemmed from events of December 5th, 1998. The case against the defendant was filed by District Attorney Susan Reed after police reports showed he was in possession of a gun during an assault on a female friend. A background check of the defendant revealed he had prior felony convictions for theft from a person, sexual assault, voluntary manslaughter and prior misdemeanor convictions for possession of marijuana and criminal trespass.
