County Judge Nelson Wolff Announces Appointment Process for Interim Precinct 3 County Commissioner

Bexar County Judge Nelson Wolff is now opening the process for the appointment of Interim Precinct 3 County Commissioner. The office of Precinct 3 County Commissioner was vacated by Commissioner Trish DeBerry. The appointed Interim Precinct 3 County Commissioner will serve until December 31, 2022.

“It is of vital importance that Precinct 3 continues to be represented until a qualified interim County Commissioner is appointed. Until that time, County Commissioner Trish DeBerry will continue to represent Precinct 3 and serve in a hold-over status,” stated Bexar County Judge Nelson Wolff.

“I am seeking the best qualified candidate to represent this precinct. After the deadline, I will consult with my colleagues on the Commissioners Court and will move forward from that point. I intend to appoint the interim Commissioner in early January.”

All interested candidates must provide a resume and statement of interest to the Office of the County Judge by email to Nicole Erfurth, Chief of Staff to the County Judge, at nicole.erfurth@bexar.org.

All statements of interest and resumes must be received by Friday, December 31, 2021, at 12:00 p.m. (Noon). Any submissions received after the deadline will not be considered.

At a minimum, Section 141.001 of the Texas Election Code states that to be eligible for appointment to public elective office in this state, a person must:

- (1) be a United States citizen; and
- (2) be 18 years of age or older on the date of appointment; and
- (3) have resided continuously in the state for 12 months and in the territory from which the office is elected for six months immediately preceding the date appointment is made; and
- (4) be a registered voter of the territory from which the office is elected.

Please note that all submissions will be subject to the Texas Public Information Act.
