

Steven Prado is the Analyst for the Bexar County Small Business & Entrepreneurship Department. He is responsible for social media marketing, budget analysis and business outreach. With over 5 years with Bexar County working for Bexar County BiblioTech Public Library, he is a great resource to the Bexar County community. Steven is active in the community regularly meeting with clients to assist them with best new business practices and public resources available.