

Francisco M. Ramon IV, CTCM, CTCD Small Business & Entrepreneurship Department Bexar County

Francisco Ramon is a San Antonio-native who possesses a B.A. in Business Administration, having been conferred by Columbia Southern University. Mr. Ramon's past work experiences include over 15 years of Government Acquisition and Administration for both Brooks Air Forces Base and Texas A&M University- San Antonio. Mr. Ramon is also a retired United States Navy Veteran with over twenty years of service with a background in Supply Chain Management and Information Specialist.

While on active duty Mr. Ramon served two tours in Desert Storm and Desert Shield campaign assigned to a weapons ammunition group. Transitioning from the military to the civilian sector Mr. Ramon worked for several Air Force installation serving as acquisition and contracting manager. In addition to his degree mentioned above, Mr. Ramon is also holds certifications for both Contract Manager and Contract Developer issued by Texas State Comptroller's Office and currently working on his Master of Science in Business Analytics (MSBA) at the University of Texas, Rio Grande. Mr. Ramon's is an active member of the Association of Government Accountant AGA and is also working in completing his (CGFM certification) certified Government Financial Manager.

In his current capacity with Bexar County Mr. Ramon serves as the Capacity Building Program Coordinator for the Small Business & Entrepreneurship Department. Tasks within Mr. Ramon's purview includes the responsibility under general direction to provide project execution and management, data analysis, communication and the development of capacity-building program to include outreach and education.